269 presented warrants the removal of such town treasurer [, he] from 270 office, the judge shall cause to be prepared a written order to that 341 Sec. 18. Subsections (f) to (i), inclusive, of section 8-30g of the 342 general statutes are repealed and the following is substituted in lieu 343 thereof (Effective from passage):

344 (f) Any person whose affordable housing application is denied or is 345 approved with restrictions which have a substantial adverse impact on 346 the viability of the affordable housing development or the degree of 347 affordability of the affordable dwelling units in a set-aside 348 development, may appeal such decision pursuant to the procedures of 349 this section. Such appeal shall be filed within the time period for filing 350 appeals as set forth in section 8-8, 8-9, 8-28 [, 8-30] or 8-30a, as 351 applicable, and shall be made returnable to the superior court for the 352 judicial district where the real property which is the subject of the 353 application is located. Affordable housing appeals, including pretrial
354 motions, shall be heard by a judge assigned by the Chief Court
355 Administrator to hear such appeals. To the extent practicable, efforts 356 shall be made to assign such cases to a small number of judges, sitting 357 in geographically diverse parts of the state, so that a consistent body of 358 expertise can be developed. Unless otherwise ordered by the Chief 359 Court Administrator, such appeals, including pretrial motions, shall be 360 heard by such assigned judges in the judicial district in which such 361 judge is sitting. Appeals taken pursuant to this subsection shall be 362 privileged cases to be heard by the court as soon after the return day as 363 is practicable. Except as otherwise provided in this section, appeals 364 involving an affordable housing application shall proceed in 365 conformance with the provisions of said section 8-8, 8-9, 8-28 [, 8-30] or 366 8-30a, as applicable.

367 (g) Upon an appeal taken under subsection (f) of this section, the 368 burden shall be on the commission to prove, based upon the evidence 369 in the record compiled before such commission that the decision from 370 which such appeal is taken and the reasons cited for such decision are 371 supported by sufficient evidence in the record. The commission shall 372 also have the burden to prove, based upon the evidence in the record 373 compiled before such commission, that (1) (A) the decision is necessary 374 to protect substantial public interests in health, safety, or other matters
375 which the commission may legally consider; (B) such public interests 376 clearly outweigh the need for affordable housing; and (C) such public 377 interests cannot be protected by reasonable changes to the affordable 378 housing development, or (2) (A) the application which was the subject

379 of the decision from which such appeal was taken would locate 380 affordable housing in an area which is zoned for industrial use and 381 which does not permit residential uses, and (B) the development is not 382 assisted housing, as defined in subsection (a) of this section. If the 383 commission does not satisfy its burden of proof under this subsection, 384 the court shall wholly or partly revise, modify, remand or reverse the 385 decision from which the appeal was taken in a manner consistent with 386 the evidence in the record before it.

387 (h) Following a decision by a commission to reject an affordable 388 housing application or to approve an application with restrictions 389 which have a substantial adverse impact on the viability of the 390 affordable housing development or the degree of affordability of the 391 affordable dwelling units, the applicant may, within the period for 392 filing an appeal of such decision, submit to the commission a proposed 393 modification of its proposal responding to some or all of the objections 394 or restrictions articulated by the commission, which shall be treated as 395 an amendment to the original proposal. The day of receipt of such a 396 modification shall be determined in the same manner as the day of 397 receipt is determined for an original application. The filing of such a 398 proposed modification shall stay the period for filing an appeal from 399 the decision of the commission on the original application. The 400 commission shall hold a public hearing on the proposed modification 401 if it held a public hearing on the original application and may hold a 402 public hearing on the proposed modification if it did not hold a public 403 hearing on the original application. The commission shall render a 404 decision on the proposed modification not later than sixty-five days 405 after the receipt of such proposed modification, provided, if, in 406 connection with a modification submitted under this subsection, the 407 applicant applies for a permit for an activity regulated pursuant to 408 sections 22a-36 to 22a-45, inclusive, and the time for a decision by the 409 commission on such modification under this subsection would lapse 410 prior to the thirty-fifth day after a decision by an inland wetlands and 411 watercourses agency, the time period for decision by the commission 412 on the modification under this subsection shall be extended to thirty-413 five days after the decision of such agency. The commission shall issue

414 notice of its decision as provided by law. Failure of the commission to 415 render a decision within said sixty-five days or subsequent extension 416 period permitted by this subsection shall constitute a rejection of the 417 proposed modification. Within the time period for filing an appeal on 418 the proposed modification as set forth in section 8-8, 8-9, 8-28 [8-30] or 419 8-30a, as applicable, the applicant may appeal the commission's 420 decision on the original application and the proposed modification in 421 the manner set forth in this section. Nothing in this subsection shall be 422 construed to limit the right of an applicant to appeal the original 423 decision of the commission in the manner set forth in this section

582 when the plurality of an elected or nominated candidate over the vote 583 for a defeated candidate receiving the next highest number of votes 584 was either (1) less than a vote equivalent to one-half of one per cent of 585 the total number of votes cast at the primary for the office or position 586 but not more than one thousand votes, or (2) less than twenty votes, 587 there shall be a recanvass of the returns of the voting machine or 588 voting machines used in such primary for said office or position unless 589 within one day after the primary, in the case of nomination to a 590 municipal office or for election of members of a town committee, or 591 prior to the time the Secretary of the State notifies the town clerk of 592 state and district offices which qualify for an automatic recanvass, the 593 defeated candidate or defeated candidates, as the case may be, for such 594 office or position file a written statement waiving [this] the right to 595 such recanvass with the municipal clerk in the case of a municipal 601 recanvass and shall also notify each candidate for any such office.

602 When a recanvass is to be held, the municipal clerk shall promptly 603 notify the moderator, as defined in section 9-311, who shall proceed

609 recanvass is made, give notice in writing of the time and place of such 610 recanvass to each candidate for a municipal office which qualifies for 611 an automatic recanvass under this section. For purposes of this section,

614 the total number of electors checked as having voted in the primary [] 615 in the state, district, municipality or political subdivision, as the case
616 may be. When a recanvass of the returns for an office for which there

640 and (3) the party designation, if any. An applicant for petition forms

641 who does not wish to specify a party designation shall so indicate on 642 his application for such forms and his application, if so marked, shall 643 not be amended in this respect. No application made after November 644 3, 1981, shall contain any party designation unless a reservation of 645 such party designation with the secretary is in effect for all of the 646 offices included in the application or unless the party designation is 647 the same as the name of a minor party which is qualified for a different 648 office or offices on the same ballot as the office or offices included in 656 candidate for the other office and includes the consent of both such 657 candidates; [(3)] (C) if petition forms have previously been issued on 658 behalf of the same candidate for the same office unless the candidate

858 application is approved by the assessor, it shall be forwarded to the 859 secretary on or before July first of the year in which such application is 863 after the date it is filed with the assessor. After a taxpayer's claim for 864 the first year has been filed and approved such taxpayer shall be 865 required to file such an application biennially. In respect to such 882 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from 883 passage):

884 (a) No claim shall be accepted under section 12-170v unless the 885 taxpayer or authorized agent of such taxpayer files an application with 886 the assessor of the municipality in which the property is located, in 887 such form and manner as the assessor may prescribe, during the 888 period from February first to and including May fifteenth of any year 889 in which benefits are first claimed, including such information as is 890 necessary to substantiate such claim in accordance with requirements
891 in such application. A taxpayer may make application to the assessor 892 prior to August fifteenth of the claim year for an extension of the 893 application period. The assessor may grant such extension in the case 894 of extenuating circumstance due to illness or incapacitation as 895 evidenced by a physician's certificate to that extent, or if the assessor
896 determines there is good cause for doing so. The taxpayer shall present 897 to the assessor a copy of such taxpayer's federal income tax return and 898 the federal income tax return of such taxpayer's spouse, if filed 899 separately, for such taxpayer's taxable year ending immediately prior 900 to the submission of the taxpayer's application, or if not required to file 901 a federal income tax return, such other evidence of qualifying income 902 in respect to such taxable year as the assessor may require. Each such 903 application, together with the federal income tax return and any other 904 information submitted in relation thereto, shall be examined by the 905 assessor and a determination shall be made as to whether the 906 application is approved. Upon determination by the assessor that the 907 applying homeowner is entitled to tax relief in accordance with the 908 provisions of section 12-170v and this section, the assessor shall notify 909 the homeowner and the municipal tax collector of the approval of such 910 application. The municipal tax collector shall determine the maximum 911 amount of the tax due with respect to such homeowner's residence and 912 thereafter the property tax with respect to such homeowner's residence 913 shall not exceed such amount. After a taxpayer's claim for the first year 914 has been filed and approved such taxpayer shall file such an 915 application biennially. In respect to such application required after the 916 filing and approval for the first year the assessor in each municipality 917 shall notify each such taxpayer concerning application requirements 918 by regular mail not later than February first of the assessment year in 919 which such taxpayer is required to reapply, enclosing a copy of the 921 to the assessor by mail provided it is received by the assessor not later 922 than March fifteenth in the assessment year with respect to which such 923 tax relief is claimed. Not later than April first of such year the assessor 924 shall notify, by certified mail, any such taxpayer for whom such 925 application was not received by said March fifteenth concerning 926 application requirements and such taxpayer shall submit not later than 927 May fifteenth such application personally or for reasonable cause, by a

930 Sec. 36. Subsection (e) of section 12-170aa of the general statutes is 931 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from 932 passage):

933 (e) Any claim for tax reduction under this section shall be submitted 934 for approval, on the application form prepared for such purpose by the 935 Secretary of the Office of Policy and Management, in the first year 936 claim for such tax relief is filed and biennially thereafter. The amount 937 of tax reduction approved shall be applied to the real property tax 938 payable by the homeowner for the assessment year in which such 939 application is submitted and approved. If any such homeowner has 940 qualified for tax reduction under this section, the tax reduction 941 determined shall, when possible, be applied and prorated uniformly 942 over the number of installments in which the real property tax is due

943 and payable to the municipality in which he resides. In the case of any 944 homeowner who is eligible for tax reduction under this section as a 945 result of increases in qualifying income, effective with respect to the 946 assessment year commencing October 1, 1987, under the schedule of 947 qualifying income and tax reduction in subsection (c) of this section, 948 exclusive of any such increases related to social security adjustments in 949 accordance with subsection (b) of this section, the total amount of tax 950 reduction to which such homeowner is entitled shall be credited and 951 uniformly prorated against property tax installment payments 952 applicable to such homeowner's residence which become due after 953 such homeowner's application for tax reduction under this section is 954 accepted. In the event that a homeowner has paid in full the amount of 955 property tax applicable to such homeowner's residence, regardless of 956 whether the municipality requires the payment of property taxes in 957 one or more installments, such municipality shall make payment to 958 such homeowner in the amount of the tax reduction allowed. The 959 municipality shall be reimbursed for the amount of such payment in 960 accordance with subsection (g) of this section. In respect to such 961 application required biennially after the filing and approval for the 962 first year, the tax assessor in each municipality shall notify each such 963 homeowner concerning application requirements by regular mail not 964 later than February first, annually enclosing a copy of the required 965 application form. Such homeowner may submit such application to the 966 assessor by mail provided it is received by the assessor not later than 967 March fifteenth in the assessment year with respect to which such tax 968 reduction is claimed. Not later than April first of such year the assessor 969 shall notify, by certified mail, any such homeowner for whom such 970 application was not received by said March fifteenth concerning 971 application requirements and such homeowner shall be required not 972 later than May fifteenth to submit such application personally or, for 973 reasonable cause, by a person acting [in] on behalf of such taxpayer as 974 approved by the assessor. In the year immediately following any year 975 in which such homeowner has submitted application and qualified for 976 tax reduction in accordance with this section, such homeowner shall be 977 presumed, without filing application therefor, to be qualified for tax

978 reduction in accordance with the schedule in subsection (c) of this 979 section in the same percentage of property tax as allowed in the year
980 immediately preceding. If any homeowner has qualified and received 981 tax reduction under this section and subsequently in any calendar year 982 has qualifying income in excess of the maximum described in this 983 section, [he] such homeowner shall notify the tax assessor on or before 984 the next filing date and shall be denied tax reduction under this section 985 for the assessment year and any subsequent year or until [he] such 986 homeowner has reapplied and again qualified for benefits under this 987 section. Any such person who fails to so notify the tax assessor of his 988 disqualification shall refund all amounts of tax reduction improperly 989 taken and be fined not more than five hundred dollars.

2512 any time inspect such animal and the enclosure or other facilities used 2513 to hold such animal and make inquiry concerning the diet and other 2514 care such animal should have and if, in the opinion of the 2516 provided adequate or proper facilities or care, such animal may be 2517 seized by such representative of the department and be disposed of as 2518 determined by the commissioner. Fur-bearing animals taken alive, as 2519 [herein] provided in this section, shall not be sold or exchanged,

2539 such regulation may, by order of the trial court, be forfeited to the state 2540 and may be retained for use by the department or may be sold or

2607 appears that the deceased left any estate, the Comptroller may present 2608 a claim [in] on behalf of the state against the estate of such deceased 2609 veteran for the sum so paid, and the claim shall be a preferred claim 2610 against such estate and shall be paid to the Treasurer of the state. The 2611 commissioner, upon the advice of the Attorney General, may make

3426 and has a right to be represented by an attorney of the respondent's 3427 choice at the respondent's own expense. The notice shall also include a 3428 statement in boldface type of a minimum size of twelve points in 3429 substantially the following form:

3430 "POSSIBLE CONSEQUENCES OF THE APPOINTMENT OF A 3431 CONSERVATOR FOR YOU

3432 This court has received an application to appoint a conservator for 3433 you. A conservator is a court-appointed legal guardian who may be 3434 assigned important decision-making authority over your affairs. If the 3435 application is granted and a conservator is appointed for you, you will 3436 lose some of your rights.

3437 A permanent conservator may only be appointed for you after a 3438 court hearing. You have the right to attend the hearing on the 3439 application for appointment of a permanent conservator. If you are not 3440 able to access the court where the hearing will be held, you may 3441 request that the hearing be moved to a convenient location, even to 3442 your place of residence.

3443 You should have an attorney represent you at the hearing on the 3444 application. If you are unable to obtain an attorney to represent you at 3445 the hearing, the court will appoint an attorney for you. If you are 3446 unable to pay for representation by an attorney, the court will pay 3447 attorney fees as permitted by the court's rules. Even if you qualify for 3448 payment of an attorney on your behalf, you may choose an attorney if 3449 the attorney will accept the attorney fees permitted by the court's rules.

3450 If, after a hearing on the application, the court decides that you lack 3451 the ability to care for yourself, pay your bills or otherwise manage 3452 your affairs, the court may review any alternative plans you have to 3453 get assistance to handle your own affairs that do not require 3454 appointment of a conservator. If the court decides that there are no 3455 adequate alternatives to the appointment of a conservator, the court 3456 may appoint a conservator and assign the conservator responsibility 3457 for some or all of the duties listed below. While the purpose of a 3458 conservator is to help you, you should be aware that the appointment 3459 of a conservator limits your rights. Among the areas that may be 3460 affected are:

3461 - Accessing and budgeting your money

- 3462 - Deciding where you live
- 3463 - Making medical decisions for you
- 3464 - Paying your bills
- 3465 - Managing your real and personal property

3466 You may participate in the selection of your conservator. If you 3467 have already designated a conservator or if you inform the court of 3468 your choice for a conservator, the court must honor your request 3469 unless the court decides that the person designated by you is not 3470 appropriate.

3471 The conservator appointed for you may be a lawyer, a public official 3472 or someone whom you did not know before the appointment. The 3473 conservator will be required to make regular reports to the court about 3474 you. The conservator may charge you a fee, under the supervision of 3475 the court, for being your conservator."

3476 Sec. 137. Subsection (b) of section 45a-654 of the general statutes is 3477 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from 3478 passage):

3479 (b) Unless the court waives the medical evidence requirement
3480 pursuant to subsection (e) of this section, an appointment of a 3481 temporary conservator shall not be made unless a report is filed with 3482 the application for appointment of a temporary conservator, signed by 3483 a physician licensed to practice medicine or surgery in this state, 3484 stating: (1) That the physician has examined the respondent and the 3485 date of such examination, which shall not be more than three days 3486 prior to the date of presentation to the judge; (2) that it is the opinion of 3487 the physician that the respondent is incapable of managing his or her 3488 affairs or incapable of caring for himself or herself; and (3) the reasons 3489 for such opinion. Any physician's report filed with the court pursuant 3490 to this subsection shall be confidential. The court shall provide for the 3491 disclosure of the medical information required pursuant to this 3492 subsection to the respondent on the respondent's request, to the 3493 respondent's attorney and to any other party considered appropriate 3494 by the court.

3508 to the other party, make any order as to the custody, care, education, 3509 visitation and support of any minor child of the parties, subject to the 3510 provisions of sections 46b-54, 46b-56, 46b-57 and 46b-66. Proceedings 3511 to obtain such orders shall be commenced by service of an application,
